Tbilisi, Georgia

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Georgia is located on the crossroad of Europe and Asia. It lays at the eastern end of the Black Sea, with Turkey and Armenia to the south, Azerbaijan to the east, and Russia to the north, over the Caucasus Mountains.

The capital and largest city is Tbilisi. Georgia's total territory covers 69,700 square kilometers. Population in Georgia is almost 4 million. Georgia is a country of ancient civilization and its statehood is of 3000 years.

Official language is Georgian.

Georgian currency is Georgian Lari (ლ) (GEL).

The climate, flora, fauna of Georgia is extremely diverse, considering the nation's small size.

The Capital City Tbilisi

The most widely accepted variant of the legend about Tbilisi's founding says that in the mid-5th century AD, King Vakhtang I Gorgasali revived and rebuilt it. There are many sights you may take a look:

- Narikala

Narikala Fortress can be seen from any point within Old Tbilisi. It was constructed for defense purposes in the 4th century and was considerably expanded over subsequent historical periods.

- Rustaveli Avenue and Freedom Square

Rustaveli Avenue begins at Freedom Square and this is the center of the city, where many of the governmental, cultural and business facilities are located.

- Agmashenebeli Avenue

Agmashenebeli Avenue is one of the longest and most beautiful streets of the city. Here you can find gorgeous historic buildings, painted entryways and distinctive architectural ornaments.

- Holy Trinity Cathedral

The Trinity (Sameba) Cathedral is one of the tallest Eastern Orthodox cathedrals in the World. The cathedral complex includes an underground section and integrates nine chapels, various supplementary buildings, and beautiful gardens.
