

To

CEPT Administrations and participants in the work of the ECC
(ECC List A + ECC Plenary members)

Date

19 November 2025

Our reference

ECC(26)NOM 01

Enclosures

2 Annexes

Your reference*Subject:

Vacancy for the Vice-Chair of the Electronic Communications Committee (ECC)

Dear Colleagues,

I wish to inform you that the ECC will have to appoint the position of one ECC Vice-Chair during its forthcoming meeting, planned for the 3-6 March 2026.

According to the ECC Rules of Procedure (the relevant Articles 8 and 9 are attached as Annex 1), I invite CEPT Members to consider submitting candidates for the post of Vice-Chair of ECC.

For your information, the Terms of Reference of the ECC are attached as Annex 2.

Please send nominations of candidates, including a brief Curriculum Vitae, via email to ECC.secretary@BNetzA.de by Tuesday 3 February 2026 at the latest, so that the administrations have time to consider the merits of the candidates.

Nominations received will be posted on the CEPT ECC website in the Chair Positions folder for the 69th ECC meeting.

Yours sincerely,

Christiane Seifert
Chair CEPT Electronic Communications Committee

Annex 1: Relevant part of the ECC Rules of Procedure
Annex 2: ToR of ECC

Relevant Sections of the ECC Rules of Procedure

ARTICLE 8 - PRINCIPLES FOR APPOINTING CHAIRS AND VICE CHAIRS OF ALL GROUPS

- 8.1 Only Members' representatives are entitled to be Chairs or Vice Chairs.
- Representatives of the Office may serve as Chairs of Task Groups, Project Teams and Forum Groups.
- 8.2 The primary considerations for choosing Chairs and Vice Chairs are the experience and qualifications of the persons concerned.
- 8.3 As far as possible there should be an equitable geographical distribution of appointments.
- 8.4 The Chair and Vice Chairs of any group shall not represent the same Member.
- 8.5 Appointments shall normally be for a maximum of three years with the possibility of reappointment for one further consecutive term only.
- 8.5bis For Working Groups preparing for ITU Conferences the term of the Chair shall normally be limited to one Conference cycle.
- 8.5ter When applying 8.5, Working Groups are afforded the necessary flexibility for the number of terms of Project Teams and Forum Groups Chair, while encouraging the principle of rotation.
- 8.6 The number of Vice Chairs for any ECC entity shall be limited to two.
- 8.7 A Vice Chair shall assume the responsibilities and role of the Chair, when the Chair is unavailable.

ARTICLE 9 - PROCEDURE FOR APPOINTING THE CHAIR AND VICE CHAIRS OF THE PLENARY AND CHAIRS OF WORKING GROUPS

- 9.1 A list of Chairs and Vice Chairs of the Plenary and Working Groups should be maintained on the CEPT website.
- 9.2 An announcement shall be made at the Plenary meeting prior to the Plenary meeting which will need to make an appointment, of the vacancy and the need to make the appointment at the subsequent meeting.
- 9.3 Following this meeting the ECC Chair shall invite all CEPT Members to consider submitting a candidate for the vacant post. The information shall also be sent to the individuals on the Plenary distribution list.
- 9.4 Candidates must be proposed by the Member at least one month prior to the Plenary meeting which shall make the appointment. The Member must make a commitment that the necessary resources (including secretarial services) to support the duties of the Chair shall be provided, should their candidate be successful. Brief curriculum vitae for the candidates should be included, indicating relevant qualification and experience. This information shall be forwarded to the ECC Chair who shall immediately publish it in the meeting documents area of the CEPT website. This information shall be accessible to CEPT Members only.

- 9.5 The names, including CV, shall be circulated to all CEPT Members. The information shall also be sent to the individuals on the Plenary distribution list.
- 9.6 Members unable to attend the Plenary meeting making the appointment, are invited to advise the ECC Chair, in writing, of their preference, and give their proxy vote in accordance with Article 15.3.
- 9.7 Candidates may be requested to make a presentation of their candidature during the first day of the Plenary meeting where the appointment has to be made.
- 9.8.1 During the Plenary meeting, where the appointment is to be made, the ECC Chair, if there is more than one candidate, shall seek a decision by means of a secret ballot, in accordance with Article 14 and Article 15. If there are only two candidates and they receive the same number of votes, there shall be a second round of voting, after sufficient time for consultation between the two rounds. If in this case too, the two candidates receive the same number of votes and if no candidate volunteers to withdraw, the elected candidate is randomly selected by means of a lottery draw.
- 9.8.2 If there are more than two candidates and no candidate is elected in the first round, there shall be multiple rounds. In every subsequent round except from the last round, if no candidate is elected, the candidate who receives the lowest number of votes shall not participate in the next round.
- 9.8.3 If in any subsequent round referred to in Article 9.8.2 two or more candidates receive equal lowest number of votes, the candidate who is randomly selected by means of a lottery draw shall not participate in the next round.
- 9.8.4 If at the end of a round, one or more candidate(s) withdraw(s), the voting procedure continues with all other candidates, including the one(s) who received the lowest number of votes in the round.
- 9.8.5 If in the final round between two (2) candidates, both of them get the same number of votes, there shall be sufficient time available to allow for consultations. If no candidate volunteers to withdraw, the elected candidate is randomly selected by means of a lottery draw.
- 9.8.6 There shall be sufficient time available between two consecutive rounds in order to allow for consultations.

The Electronic Communications Committee (ECC)

shall:

1. Consider and develop policies on electronic communications<sup>2</sup> activities in a European context, taking account of European and international legislation and regulations;
2. Develop European common positions and proposals, as appropriate, for use in the Framework of international and regional bodies;
3. Forward plan and harmonise within Europe the efficient use of the radio spectrum, satellite orbits and numbering resources, so as to satisfy the requirements of users and industry;
4. Take decisions on the management of the work of the ECC;
5. Approve Decisions and other deliverables;
6. Implement the strategic decisions of the Assembly;
7. Seek guidance from the Assembly, as and when necessary, and propose issues for consideration by the Assembly;
8. Where relevant, establish contacts with equivalent organisations outside of Europe;
9. Report to the CEPT Assembly on the progress of its work.

In carrying out these activities, the ECC shall establish close cooperation and consultation with relevant European bodies, in particular the European Commission and the European Free Trade Association. Unless decided differently by the ECC Plenary with regard to a specific issue, contributions to the European Commission on ECC matters should in any case be agreed by the ECC Plenary.

<sup>2</sup> 'electronic communications' means transmission, and, where applicable, switching or routing, which permits the conveyance of signals by wire, radio, optical or other electromagnetic means, irrespective of the type of information conveyed