Visa

Information on visa requirements for entry into Ireland and on travel documents accepted by Ireland can be found on Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade website <https://www.dfa.ie/travel/visas/>. Delegates who require a visa should start their application as soon as possible. Individual invitations will be sent upon request to Loredana.macari@comreg.ie

Citizens from the EU and EEA member states do not require a visa but are required to produce a valid passport or national identity card for entry into Ireland.

Electrical Appliances

Unlike most European countries, Ireland works off a flat three-pin plug system. Electrical current is between 220 and 240 volts, 50 cycles alternating current (AC). Conversion adapters can be purchased in duty-free shops in the airport or in any pharmacy.

Currency

The Irish currency unit is the euro (EUR,€), divided into 100 cent.

Local Time

Irish local time is GMT.

Shops

Common opening hours are 9.00am - 6.00pm, Monday to Saturday, with late night shopping on Thursday & Friday nights until 9.00pm. Most shops are also open on Sundays from 12.00pm to 6.00pm.

Banks and Credit Cards

Banks are open Monday to Friday 10.00am - 4.00pm and are closed on Saturdays and Sundays. Cash withdrawal machines accept all major bank and credit cards. Irish hotels, restaurants, car rental agencies and most shops all accept major credit cards.

Emergencies and Medical Services

Garda Síochána (Ireland's National Police Service), Fire Brigade Ambulance. Phone: 999 or 112
